

CHELSEA PIERS

July 8, 2010

A huge three-pier complex on the West Side Highway, Chelsea Piers is New York's answer to suburban living. The sprawling sporting and entertainment paradise has it all ? a multi-story golf driving range, swimming pool, world-class gym, Olympic sized skating rink, bowling alley, sun deck, skate park, a kids ball pit, a playground and a spa to mention just a few...ok...breathe. Although it's not all that easy to get to, there are plenty of taxis waiting outside to get you home again and I would suggest just taking a taxi there for your sanity (subway stop is a few LONG blocks away). Check out the website for more information ? they have tons of stuff going on year round for kids: summer camps, birthday parties and sports and dance classes galore. This summer they also have an old-fashioned carousel set up which is always a good time. I haven't been in a while but I seem to recall that they also have a Brewery on-site which is always a bonus.
