

PURL SOHO

October 4, 2010

This winter I plan to channel some old-world ?know-how? into my life and finally learn how to sew and knit... properly. As a city-kid, ?knitting? was never something that hit my radar until recently but I would really love to tap into to this creative zone and learn to make fun things for the kids and for the home. I have always loved the look of Purl Soho with its walls chock full of colorful yarns, beautiful fabrics and cute-as-a-button trims but I always felt intimidated by my dire lack of craftiness. The store recently moved to a new huge space on Broome Street and they are now offering classes (yippee!) so I am definitely jumping on board. If you don't have a chance to visit the store... do check out their website which is enticing and inspiring.

Also check out this adorable little make-your-own Alphabet Block kit for babies?would be a nice gift for a friend.
